- 5:30 pm World War One At Sea - For centuries, the Royal British Navy had battled in southern waters against traditional enemies, France and Spain. But in the first years of the twentieth century, that all changed. The new threat was to the northeast, as Germany built a formidable new navy. This two-part documentary is told from the perspectives of both Britain and Germany, offering a unique perspective on the events and experiences that would help decide the outcome of World War One. (Part 1 of 2) (From the UK) (Documentary) (class. tba) CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm Petra: Lost City Of Stone - Jordan is one of the driest countries in the world. Over 2,000 years ago, a mysterious tribe constructed Petra, a thriving city with spectacular temple-tombs carved into cliffs. As mysteriously as Petra emerged, it disappeared, lost for over a thousand years. Archaeologists and engineers wade deep into the sands of time to unlock the ancient secrets of Petra. (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 8:35 pm Mankind From Space - Mind-boggling data and CGI traces humankind's story from hunter-gatherer to dominant global species in this epic journey of discovery. Seen from the perspective of space, this shows the breath-taking extent of humankind's influence; how humans as a species have transformed the planet and produced an interconnected world of extraordinary complexity. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC **Documentary Premiere****
- 10:20 pm The Rise and Rise of Donald Trump - Since announcing his candidacy, Donald Trump is everywhere. To him, nothing is taboo and no policy is too outlandish to embrace. This billionaire candidate has become the champion of the everyday American. Trump's campaign was followed over 200 days. His ex-employees, childhood friends, billionaire buddies, supporters and critics are all spotlighted to gain insight on what a Trump presidency would really be like. (From France, in English) (Documentary) (class. tba) CC **Documentary Premiere****
- 11:20 pm The Man Next Door - When two neighbours clash, their argument becomes less about proposed building alterations and more about the wider battle between class and social status. The hugely impressive building in question is the only example of a Le Corbusier residential home in all of Latin America, adding to the poignancy of their argument. Winner of six Argentinean Academy Awards in 2010, including Best Film. Directed by Mariano Cohn and Gastón Duprat, and stars Rafael Spregelburd, Daniel Aráoz and Eugenia Alonso. (From Argentina, in Spanish) (Drama) (2009) (Rpt) M (S,L,V)

Sunday May 1st, 2016

- 1:20 am Dead Famous Dna - Mark Evans sets out to track down the remains of some of history's most famous figures. With eminent scientists applying the latest advances in DNA testing to the samples he obtains, he attempts to solve some of the mysteries that have persisted around them. The results provide some astounding discoveries about these historical figures. In the first episode, Mark Evans discovers that Elvis Presley could have suffered from a genetic heart muscle disease, hypertrophic cardiomyopathy, which may have led to his tragically early death. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 2:15 am Dead Famous Dna - Mark Evans sets out to track down the remains of some of history's most important and infamous figures in this new three part series. This episode, Mark tries to learn more about John F Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe from samples of their hair, and travels to New Jersey to come face-to-face with Napoleon's penis. Experts analyse two of Charles Darwin's beard hairs to try to solve a 130-year-old riddle by identifying the debilitating mystery illness the 'Father of Evolution' suffered from for most of his life. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 3:10 am Dead Famous Dna - Mark Evans follows the extraordinary trail of relics claimed to come from Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun: bones sold by a KGB defector and hair apparently found on a hairbrush at Hitler's mountain retreat by a US Army intelligence officer at the end of the Second World War. As Mark checks out the provenance, the scientists extract the DNA and reveal an extraordinary result. Mark also meets a Canadian dentist who owns one of John Lennon's teeth and wants to clone the Beatles legend, and tests what's claimed to be a tiny part of Marlon Brando. (Part 3 of 3) (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG(A) CC

Monday May 2nd, 2016

- 3:55 pm The World From Above - Massachusetts: Plymouth Rock to Gloucester - This aerial journey begins near the town of Plymouth, where the Pilgrim Fathers' ship, the Mayflower, has been reconstructed. On the way north towards the capital of Massachusetts, Boston, we pass the town of Quincy, home to the second president - John Adams. Much of the early history of America's independence happened in Boston. Take a good look at one of the country's finest historic cities, including its modern side. Following the coast north is Salem, and a town famous for its association with witch hunts in the 17th century. The journey ends in the seaside town and harbour of Gloucester, a favourite haunt for visitors during the summer months. (S.3,Ep.7) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 4:25 pm Coast - Winter - In a dramatic, storm-lashed climax to series nine of Coast, the team explore what becomes of our coast in winter. In this secret season our shore is battered by wild weather - but teeming with life if you know where to look. Nick Crane visits Cornwall, and discovers that wild winter seas bring surprising benefits to the Cornish coast. Neil Oliver experiences the extraordinary Viking Fire Festival on Shetland, where massed ranks of Viking warriors go on parade. Andy Torbet, meanwhile, is on the Isle of St Kilda in Scotland's western Isles, observing a flock of feral sheep during the mating season. (Final) (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC

Dr Saleyha Ahsan reveals new research that could cure snoring, and Dr Chris van Tulleken investigates whether skincare products could be doing more harm than good. (S.3 Ep.2) (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC **New Episode****
- 8:30 pm Royal Navy School - The gruelling training regime is nearly over for the new recruits, but it's not plain sailing all the way to the passing out parade. Able is struck down with a sudden illness, Hill has extra worries following a family disagreement, and Penney makes a mistake and ends up having to fight for his career on the last day of training. (S.1 Ep.7) (From the UK) (Documentary) (class. tba) CC
- 9:30 pm Kebab Kings - With just over two weeks to Christmas the silly season is in full swing, but on George St, Oz Turk is unusually quiet for this time of year. With the notoriously quiet months of January and February just around the corner, former owners the Bozoglus are hoping new owners, Syrian brothers Fadi and Rami, can be more welcoming to customers. Meanwhile in Melbourne, Mustafa's mum and dad arrive from India to proudly visit Smith Kebabs for the first time. But they get a rude awakening when they witness a typical Saturday night on the front line of Australia's 'drunk-food-culture'. (Ep.2) (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) MA(L) CC

- 3:00 am Inspector Rex – Third Half - The president of a rugby club, Eugenio Sartor, is killed in his home shortly after watching a team training session. Sartor, the owner of the Eagles, had been forced to seek help from his brother-in-law Mazzilli to put the club's finances in order. Mazzilli had thus become the victim's business partner, relinquishing his ownership of a second division football club. Terzani and Rex are initially suspicious of one of the players, Michele Caccia, and then of a criminal implicated in a football match-fixing scandal, Merlo. The latter, however, is shot dead by Mazzilli while trying to kidnap Sartor's daughter. Terzani and Rex have a lot to untangle, between family conflicts, match-fixing and money laundering.
