- 8:30 pm Secrets Of The Lost Graveyard - In January 2014, archaeologists started excavating a cemetery that's been hidden for over 300 years, in the heart of London. The team have just five months to remove hundreds of skeletons from a site in the Liverpool Street area, before it's redeveloped by Crossrail, Europe's biggest engineering program. Experts will then spend a year examining the skeletons, how they were buried and objects buried with them, before they are finally laid to rest in a modern London cemetery. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC Premiere
- 9:25 pm James Cameron's Deep Sea Challenge - There are places on Earth with no human history or memories, as remote from us as a distant planet. The deep-sea trenches are such a place. The deepest points on the planet, shrouded in eternal darkness, are home to an ocean's worth of scientific mysteries waiting to be solved. Now, after years of painstaking work, a team of visionary engineers led by filmmaker James Cameron (“Avatar,” “Titanic”) has built a submersible that for the first time allows humans to visit the deepest part of this hidden world. It's an astounding feat of technical wizardry, comparable in difficulty to landing a man on the moon. Deep Sea Challenge recounts the personal journey of Cameron and members of his engineering and science team as they prepare to make history, fulfilling lifelong dreams in the process. - 3:00 pm The World From Above - England: Cromer To Belvoir Castle - This journey starts on the north coast of East Anglia at the resort town of Cromer, before heading along the coast towards the old fishing harbour of Blakeney. Heading inland past a series of magnificent country houses we take a look at the current queen's royal Residence at Sandringham. On the far side of the low-lying Fens is the city of Peterborough and its great medieval cathedral. This journey ends at two spectacular houses, Harlaxton Manor, built in the 19th century and Belvoir Castle, which has a history stretching back the Norman invasion of 1066. (S.2,Ep.9) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) G
- 3:30 pm Harlots, Housewives And Heroines - At Home - Lucy Worsley explores the ordinary as well as the extraordinary lives of women in the home. This was an age when respectable women were defined by their marital status as maids, wives or widows. If they fell outside these categories they were often labelled whores or witches. While history has left many women voiceless over the centuries, Lucy discovers that in the Restoration, a surprising number of women were beginning to question their roles in marriage, attitudes to sex and reproduction. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC
- 4:30 pm London's Wild Side - London is the ultimate urban environment - look out of the window, take a walk down the street, these views can be devoid of any natural life, with everything man-made. But looking again, with the right eyes, you can see that nature is actually here in abundance. This surprising film meets the people who have followed their own call of the wild to establish relationships with city animals, and encounters those creatures that have adapted to thrive in this urban jungle. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC
- 5:30 pm Letters And Numbers - Two contestants pit their linguistic and numerical skills against each other and the clock in this entertaining quiz show.
