- 9:35 pm Michael Moore: Where To Invade Next - Academy Award-winning director Michael Moore returns with what may be his most provocative, subversive and hilarious documentary yet. In this riveting documentary, Moore plays the role of the 'invader', visiting a host of nations including Italy, France, Germany and Tunisia to commandeer policies and ideas that will improve prospects in America. What he finds is that the solutions to America's most entrenched problems already exist in the world - they're just waiting to be captured. (From the US) (Documentary) (Class. tba) CC Premiere
- 11:50 pm Klansville USA - This documentary investigates the reasons North Carolina, long seen as the most progressive state in the South, became home to the largest Klu Klux Klan organisation in the country, with more members than all the other Southern states combined, during the 1960s. (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG(A) CC
- 12:50 am The Case Against 8 - A behind-the-scenes look inside the historic case to overturn California's ban on same-sex marriage. The high-profile trial first makes headlines with the unlikely pairing of Ted Olson and David Boies, political foes who last faced off as opposing attorneys in Bush v. Gore. The film also follows the plaintiffs, two gay couples who find their families at the centre of the same-sex marriage controversy. Five years in the making, this is the story of how they took the first federal marriage equality lawsuit to the US Supreme Court. (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 2:55 am Do I Sound Gay? - Why do some people 'sound gay' but not others? Why are gay voices a mainstay of pop culture but also a trigger for bullying and harassment? Following a break up with his boyfriend, journalist David Thorpe sets out on a quest to unravel a linguistic mystery...all his life, like many gay men, Thorpe has felt self-conscious about his stereotypically un-macho voice. But what are its origins? And why is there such a stigma attached to 'sounding gay'? As Thorpe consults with everyone from speech therapists to public figures to complete strangers, he unpacks complex cultural questions with wit, verve and intelligence. (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(S,L) CC

- 3:05 pm The Missing Evidence: Big Foot - The Big Foot Mystery - Stories of a giant walking creature have been told for centuries in the remote landscapes of Tibet and North America. It wasn't until 1951 that explorer Edmund Hillary took a photograph of huge footprints in the Himalayan snow that the legend took off. Very soon, eyewitness reports from the US and Canada suggested that an ancient species of hominid had survived in the remote American wilderness. Using the latest analytical techniques, psychology and evolutionary biology, we interrogate eyewitness accounts and the arguments for and against the existence of Bigfoot. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC

Monday February 27th, 2017

- 4:00 pm Dogs: Their Secret Lives - Mark Evans, former chief vet at Britain's RSPCA, examines what our dogs get up to while we're out, and how to keep them happy in the modern home. In this episode, German Shepherds Kes and Tasha's owners must lead separate lives to keep their dogs apart. Mark and his team of experts investigate the couple's dilemma. (S.2,Ep.1) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 5:00 pm Living Black - Eye Health - Across Australia, First Nations people are up to 10 times more likely to go blind, often from preventable causes. In Queensland that's starting to change, thanks to a mobile eye clinic that's bringing first-class ophthalmology services to some of the most remote corners of the state. Living Black investigates how the service is changing lives in the isolated community of Palm Island. (S.1 Ep.24) (An NITV Production) (Rpt) CC
- 5:30 pm Letters And Numbers - Two contestants pit their linguistic and numerical skills against each other and the clock in this entertaining quiz show. Dr Chris van Tulleken discovers whether red wine lives up to its healthy reputation, Zoe Williams looks at how sleep duration affects how much people eat, and Gabriel Weston witnesses the first operation of its kind in the UK - fitting a sternum implant made using 3D printing. (S.6 Ep.1) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Class. tba) CC New Season
- 8:35 pm Date My Race - Date My Race explores the role race plays in finding love, and reveals Australia's surprising patterns when it comes to online dating and racial preferences. It's a personal theme for 30-year-old African-Australian journalist and host Santilla Chingaibe, who is on the hunt for love. With a smorgasboard of potential mates a swipe away, she is having little luck with online dating, and wonders if it is the colour of her skin that is sabotaging her chances. This playful and surprising look at modern dating will challenge Australians to think about what drives their own romantic attraction and connection, asking the question: when looking for love, does having racial preferences amount to racism? (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary) (Class. Tba) CC
- 9:35 pm Undressed - Undressed is a hands-on social experiment which sees two complete strangers meeting for the very first time, and undressing each other. With just 30 minutes to get to know each other, there's no time to lose. Sparks fly between Queenslanders Brandon and Ryan, while Hayden gets to know Simone. Sally meets Matt, both from country Victoria, while forklift driver Aaron gets to know seamstress and cosplayer Helena. - 7:30 pm Tony Robinson Down Under - Welcome To Australia - Tony Robinson does an entrance examination to see if he'd qualify as an acceptable migrant to Australia. From its earliest days, Australia needed free migrants to grow and prosper, and it needed women. Schemes were devised to achieve both objectives, with bounties offered for bringing boatloads of human cargo from the UK and Ireland. But the people merchants got greedy, and the human toll was terrible. Tony traces immigration and multi-culturalism from the early 1800s, through the White Australia Policy, to the first arrival of Vietnamese boat people in the 1970s. He decides that the best way of exploring a country's diversity is to talk to taxi drivers. (S.1 Ep.5) (From Australia) (Documentary Series) PG CC New Episode
