- 7:30 pm Secrets Of The Colosseum - The Colosseum is one of the most iconic buildings of the ancient world and it stands as a monument to Roman imperial power and cruelty. The spectacles staged here involved the killing of tens of thousands of gladiators, prisoners, and wild animals. Records of these games brag of seemingly impossible acts - beasts magically appearing on stage and water flash-flooding the arena so that full-sized ships could engage in sea battles. Were the Romans exaggerating or did they truly achieve these feats? Until now, experts have been dubious - but what if these aren't tall tales? Now, a team of modern builders and engineers test their theories by building a trap door-pulley system capable of lifting a beast into the Colosseum. Do they have what it takes to replicate the innovation and ingenuity of the Romans? (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:30 pm The Eichmann Show - Described as the 'trial of the century', the Holocaust was shown on TV in 37 countries and was the first time the horror of the death camps had been heard live directly from its victims. The trial became the world's first ever global TV event, and this film tells the extraordinary story of the production team that overcame enormous obstacles to capture the testimony of one of the war's most notorious Nazis. Starring Martin Freeman and Anthony LaPaglia. (From the US) (Documentary) M(A,L) CC

ALL MARKETS REJOIN

- MOVIE:
- 2:00 am A Distant Neighbourhood - By chance, fifty-year-old Thomas finds himself back in the little town of his childhood. While visiting his mother's grave he faints, after being overwhelmed by the memories of her and the father that abandoned him. Coming to, he sees that his mother's name is no longer inscribed on the tombstone. He soon realises he has awoken in the past, in the body of his 14 year-old self. With all the foresight of his fifty years, Thomas revisits high school, meets with the girl with whom he was secretly in love, and tries to find the real reasons for his father's departure. Directed by Sam Garbarski and stars Pascal Greggory. (From Belgium, in French) (Drama) (2010) (Rpt) PG(S,A)
- 3:50 am Death: A Series About Life - Political Death - Death leads to solidarity and unifies society, but it also leads to separation, power struggle and vengeance, both within society and between societies. If death and the numbers of dead have a gathering or separating effect is dependent on personal closeness, the group's views on life, and whether it concerns "us" or "the others". The one being able to define death for a larger group has always been in possession of power, power over life and death. Definition struggles over life and death thus become a struggle for power. - 3:05 pm Time Traveller's Guide To Elizabethan England - *The Rich - Dr Ian Mortimer introduces you to the world of the Elizabethan rich and privileged. Money alone is not enough to allow you to blend in with the royal court. There is much to learn about how the wealthy dress, greet and behave. The high classes operate with their own secret codes of manners, dress, hygiene and dancing. Even something as simple as the size of your ruff may be enough to betray an out-of-date outfit and have you excluded from the upper levels of society. This is quite literally a cut-throat world; spies circle the great and good and one false word from you or your servants could cost you everything. Then there is the Queen herself, including the horrifying cost of hosting a royal progress. These are dangerous days and those who have the most also have the most to lose. - 2:00 am Lennonyc - When John Lennon died in December 1980, the Liverpool-born musician had been living in New York for nine years. He moved to the Big Apple following the breakup of The Beatles and the British media's relentless aversion to his wife, Yoko Ono. Lennon's involvement in the anti-Vietnam War movement prompted the US government to investigate deporting the artist, while his traumatic split with Yoko resulted in booze-fuelled exploits in Los Angeles. This documentary explores how he found his way back to the east coast, to Yoko, fatherhood and music. (From Australia) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(A,L) CC
