- 7:35 pm Michael Scott: Rome's Invisible City - With exclusive access deep beneath Rome's streets and stunning new visualisation techniques, classicist Dr Michael Scott leads a team of experts to reveal the full story of the ancient world's most awe-inspiring city and the extraordinary people who created and lived in it. Rome's spectacular skyline is as breathtaking today as when it was built. But that iconic city-scape is only half the story. There is another Rome that few people have ever seen. From huge underground quarries, subterranean aqueducts, vast water cisterns to ornate temple and tombs and the elaborate lifts, trap doors and mechanics beneath the Coliseum, this documentary reveals for the first time the buried story of the ingenious Romans and how they planned, created and lived in their captivating city more than two millennia ago. (From the UK) (Documentary) (class tba) CC **Premiere****
- 8:35 pm How To Clone A Woolly Mammoth – Kicking off SBS's Jurassic Apocalypse Season, is this fascinating documentary about cloning. Serious and reputable scientists now believe that it is technically possible to clone or "de-extinct" a whole range of animals, including the woolly mammoth - Jurassic Park style - within the next five to seven years. This involves major advances in the study of and the manipulation of ancient DNA, and in cloning. This documentary is "a beginner's guide to de-extinction"; it's about the science behind the mammoth de-extinction project - about the difficulties it faces, the enormous fragility of DNA, the challenges of discovering relatively undamaged mammoth DNA and about advances in cloning technology. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC **Premiere/Jurassic Apocalypse Season****

- 7:30 pm Michael Mosley: Should I Eat Meat? - Michael Mosley has investigated the truth about fasting, the truth about exercise and he's tried to make himself happy... Now Michael he takes on a question that baffles and confuses many of us: should I still be eating meat? Michael goes on a meat overdose diet to see what meat really does to his body. He wants to find out how much meat he should be eating, and which types are the best for us - are sausages are really worse than steak? Meat contains vital protein, vitamins and iron. But with its high saturated fat content, and as cardiovascular disease becomes the biggest killer in the western world, is meat actually killing us? After his experiment, Michael must decide whether to continue eating meat, and what he should cook for his family. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC **Michael Mosley Season****
- 8:30 pm Simon Reeve's Caribbean - The second leg of Simon Reeve's journey around the Caribbean Sea takes him from the beautiful Islands and along the coast of South America. On the beautiful and wealthy Island of Barbados he meets the owner of a traditional chattel house who has turned down offers of millions of dollars from luxury property developers. On the green volcanic slopes of St Vincent Simon meets the marijuana growers hoping, like their Prime Minister, that the drug will soon be decriminalised. Venezuela is one of the most turbulent countries in the Caribbean and from a high rise slum in Caracas to the lawless border lands, Simon tries to work out how a country so rich in oil has fallen so low. Ending his epic journey in Colombia, Simon gains rare access to the Kogi - an indigenous people who have maintained their traditional forest life style in the face of an encroaching and damaging modern world. - 9:40 pm Snowden's Great Escape - This program tells the true story of Edward Snowden in Hong Kong in the days after he gave journalists his cache of documents about the NSA. The journalists had returned home, the revelations were shocking the world, but unknown until now, Edward Snowden himself was broke and alone - and the manhunt to bring him back to the United States was closing in on him. What is stunning is how Snowden, without contacts or money, was able to take advantage of elementary mistakes made by the U.S. government and escape Hong Kong and evade the manhunt. This documentary tells the story of how he did it. (From Denmark & Germany, in English) (Documentary) G CC **Premiere****
- 10:45 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 11:10 pm Death: A Series About Life - Life After Death - Faced with death, we search for meaning and hope. Only a few find the biological explanation sufficient, and in all societies dating back to the Neanderthals, there have been notions and stories of what happens to us after death. In this programme we look into how we ritualise death, and how these rituals reveal what we believe happens after we die. We travel the world to find an enormous diversity in how societies deal with death. It seems that there lies a deep need in humankind to believe that death is not the end, that there is a supreme power. But there is a life after death? Philosophers and scientists give their thoughts. (Part 2 of 5) (From Norway, in English) (Documentary) PG(A) CC **New Episode****

Monday June 1st, 2015

- 12:15 am Movie: *The Wave - A high school teacher's unusual experiment, to demonstrate to his students what life is like under a dictatorship, spins horribly out of control when he forms a social unit with a life of its own. Nominated for the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival in 2008. Directed by Dennis Gansel and stars Jurgen Vogel, Frederick Lau and Max Riemelt. (From Germany, in German) (Drama) (2008) (Rpt) MA (A,L)
- 2:10 am Movie: *The Man Next Door - When two neighbours clash, their argument becomes less about proposed building alterations and more about the wider battle between class and social status. The hugely impressive building in question is the only example of a Le Corbusier residential home in all of Latin America, adding to the poignancy of their argument. Winner of six Argentinean Academy Awards in 2010, including Best Film. Directed by Mariano Cohn and Gastón Duprat, and stars Rafael Spregelburd, Daniel Aráoz and Eugenia Alonso. (From Argentina, in Spanish) (Drama) (2009) (Rpt) M (S,L,V)
- 4:05 am One Born Every Minute - Judith and husband Mike met when they were kids. Mike had always assumed Judith was out of his league until they met up again after university at a friend's party. A trained pharmacist, Judith is a self-confessed control freak and perfectionist for whom pregnancy has made her feel "out of control". Mike, on the other hand, is so laid back he's 'practically horizontal'. One thing they have in common is their belief in Christianity. And when things don't go to plan in the delivery room, the couple put their faith in God as well as the medical staff. (S.4,Ep.14) (From the UK) (Documentary) M(A) CC **New Episode****

- 3:55 am Bradford: City Of Dreams - Depressed, decaying and culturally divided. Bradford in Northern England is a city that has come to define the grim-up-north epithet, and with the huge influx of immigrants from Pakistan, it has earned the label "Bradistan." Throw in two sets of racially motivated riots, and its reputation appears sealed forever. Cue super-cars, sleek restaurants, happening Shisha lounges and Asian multi-millionaires in their early 30s. The look is more Monte-Carlo than Islamabad - except with a few more terraced houses and Yorkshire moors in the background. As well as the largest Muslim population outside of London, Bradford has the youngest and fastest growing population. And the young Bradfordians of today have a very different attitude to their parents: they want to make it big, get rich, and show it off. (Part 1 of 2) (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(L) CC

Though archaeologists have been poring over this site for more than 200 years, we still do not really know how the ancient Egyptians built the Great Pyramid. Now two new developments promise to change that. Archaeologist Mark Lehner, the world's leading authority on the pyramids, takes this new information and forms a radical new picture of how Giza looked two and a half thousand years ago. He will reveal that the pyramid site, though more than a hundred miles from the nearest ocean, became, thanks to the Nile, the major international port of its day. He will also reveal the extraordinary footprint of the building: construction impacted far beyond Egypt's borders. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Archaeology) G CC **Premiere****

- 8:30 pm The Greatest Knight: William Marshal - The fascinating story of knighthood, told through the extraordinary life and times of William Marshal, the world's greatest knight. For three centuries knights dominated Europe. To be a knight was to be more than a great warrior, it was to follow a chivalric code and a spiritual ideal. William Marshal was the world's greatest knight, so famous that across Europe he was known simply as 'The Marshal'. Travelling through Europe's medieval landscapes and castles, this documentary explores William's incredible life, starting with five year old boy whose father gave him as a hostage, moving through the years as he became the jousting star of Europe, the crusader, the aristocrat and finally, the defender of the realm. It is an incredible story of bravery and loyalty, a rip-roaring adventure in the spirit of King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC **Premiere****
- 9:30 pm The Naked Village - Lifting the lid on a quirky English village during one long, hot summer...welcome to Spielplatz, where the residents prefer to go naked. The leafy village of Spielplatz looks like any other small suburb, except for one thing: the residents live their everyday lives totally and utterly naked! Founded in 1929 by a family of naturists, today the village has around 30 houses. The residents are all average folk, a mix of old and new including many third generation villagers. They can't understand why 'textiles' - people who wear clothes - feel the need to cover up. However, all is not rosy in Spielplatz. The village is struggling financially and there's a temptation to cash in on the valuable land. Can events such as a naked yoga day and naked body art festival attract new visitors?
